Policy on Insurance Reimbursement:

If you have medical Insurance that provides coverage for mental health counseling, I will be happy to help you receive your maximum allowable benefits.

Upon request I can provide you with a receipt to forward to your insurance company. You are responsible for generating the claim and mailing it to the insurance company and tracking your reimbursement.

I will gladly discuss your proposed treatment and answer any questions relating to your insurance. You must realize, however, that

1. Your insurance is a contract between you, your employer and the insurance company. I am not a party to that contract.
2. My fees are considered to fall within the acceptable range by most companies, called "Usual, Customary and Reasonable" (UCR). Some companies pay a percentage of the UCR for a given area. However, some companies reimburse based on an arbitrary "schedule" of fees, which bears no relationship to the current standard and cost of care in this area.
3. Not all services are a covered benefit in all contracts. Some insurance companies arbitrarily select certain services they will not cover.
4. If your company requests a report from me in order to process your claim, the administrative fees above will apply.

Rate Policy:

- Each therapist regulates their own minimum rate. Appointments are scheduled directly with the therapist.
- Fees listed are for one clinical hour (50 minutes). Longer sessions are calculated by 15 minute increments.
- Late evening appointments, 7p.m. & later, will be subject to a $50 per hour surcharge.
- Proof of income may be required. All financial information is kept confidential.
- Discounts for multiple clients or weekly sessions, from the same family, may be arranged on a case by case basis.

I understand that at times financial hardships arise and it may be necessary to discontinue therapy for a season. However, it is my policy to work within my clients financial means in order to support the therapeutic process. Should your fee for service become a financial hardship for you, please discuss this with your therapist. As is the policy of the State of South Carolina and included in the AAMFT code of ethics, Marriage and Family Therapists are prohibited from bartering for service.

Disclosure Statement

Your decision to enter into therapy was undoubtedly a serious one arrived at after considerable thought. Whether you were referred by your physician, urged to come by family or friends or have come because of problems and feelings only you know about, the decision to come here was yours.

Therapy is a two-way effort entailing mutual respect, responsibility and consideration between you and your therapist. The policy presented is designed to make your therapy productive and to avoid any misunderstanding regarding the mutuality of the therapeutic process.

As a Marriage and Family Therapist, my area of training is the systemic treatment of individuals, couples, and families. The systemic approach to therapy takes into consideration all immediate family members in family therapy sessions. I, along with you, will decide which family members (if any) need to be included in therapy. Various goals will be established together with you at the outset of therapy.

Therapy naturally involves activities such as identifying emotions and revealing secrets. There may be risks associated with our disclosures to other family members or other family members' disclosures during the course of therapy, as well as exploration of issues. Decisions to disclose will be made by you except where mandated by law. It is expected that some uneasiness or painful emotions may occur as you are involved in therapy. Discussing painful issues will naturally create discomfort. Your participation in therapy is essential toward helping address your concerns. The Board of Examiners for the Licensure of Professional Counselors, Marriage and Family Therapists and Psychoeducational Specialists requires that all clients be informed that all forms of dual relationships such as business ventures and sexual intimacy are prohibited.

Please be aware that there is a higher incidence of divorce if only one partner in a relationship is involved in therapy. It is also important that you understand there is no guarantee all of your concerns, issues, or problems will be successfully resolved. I cannot guarantee outcomes. The outcomes may vary from your expectations. You may discontinue participation in therapy at any time. If you are not satisfied with the course of the therapy, please discuss this concern with me.
